SALISBURY, NORTH CAROLINA

Volume 41
ROWAN PUBLIC LIBRARY
SALISBURY, N. C.

Foreword

The class of 1958 wishes to perpetuate some memories which we hope will remain in the depths of our hearts forever. In the future, we hope that this annual will be used as a stepping stone to even better publications.

We, the Class of 1958, would like to extend our sincere gratitude to our principal, Mr. S. O. Jones, our parents and patrons, our superintendent, Mr. J. H. Knox, and the faculty. Especially we wish to thank Mrs. A. A. Lancaster, Mr. W. L. Miller, and Mr. W. D. Peerman, our senior advisers, for their profound devotion and persevering guidance in our class activities.

We also wish to express our thanks to the many Salisbury business firms and organizations for the advertisements furnished and the donations given, without which our plans could not have been accomplished.

Dedication

MISS EUNICE POWERS

We, the members of the Class of '58, hereby dedicate this annual to Miss Eunice Powers, who has been untiring in her efforts to instill in our minds the value of commercial education and English in our everyday lives.

Miss Powers is in our opinion the ideal teacher. She has dedicated her life to educating the youth of today both by precept and example. These are just a few of the reasons why Miss Powers will always be number one in our hearts.

The Superintendent

MR. J. H. KNOX

To the Members of the Class of 1958 of Price High School

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I congratulate you upon the completion of the requirements for graduation from J. C. Price High School. This is an achievement that speaks well for all of you and for those who have helped you to make this accomplishment possible.

My hope is that you will continue your education throughout life and that your achievements will reflect credit upon you, your family, and upon Price High School.

Cordially yours,

J. H. KNOX, Superintendent

Price Junior-Senior High School

MAIN BUILDING AND JUNIOR HIGH WING

To dwell within these walls has been an inspirational and educational experience for us. Other than scholastic knowledge, we have obtained knowledge that taught us how to live harmoniously and creatively with our fellow man. For this, we leave you our eternal gratitude.

SENIOR HIGH WING

Our Retired Principal

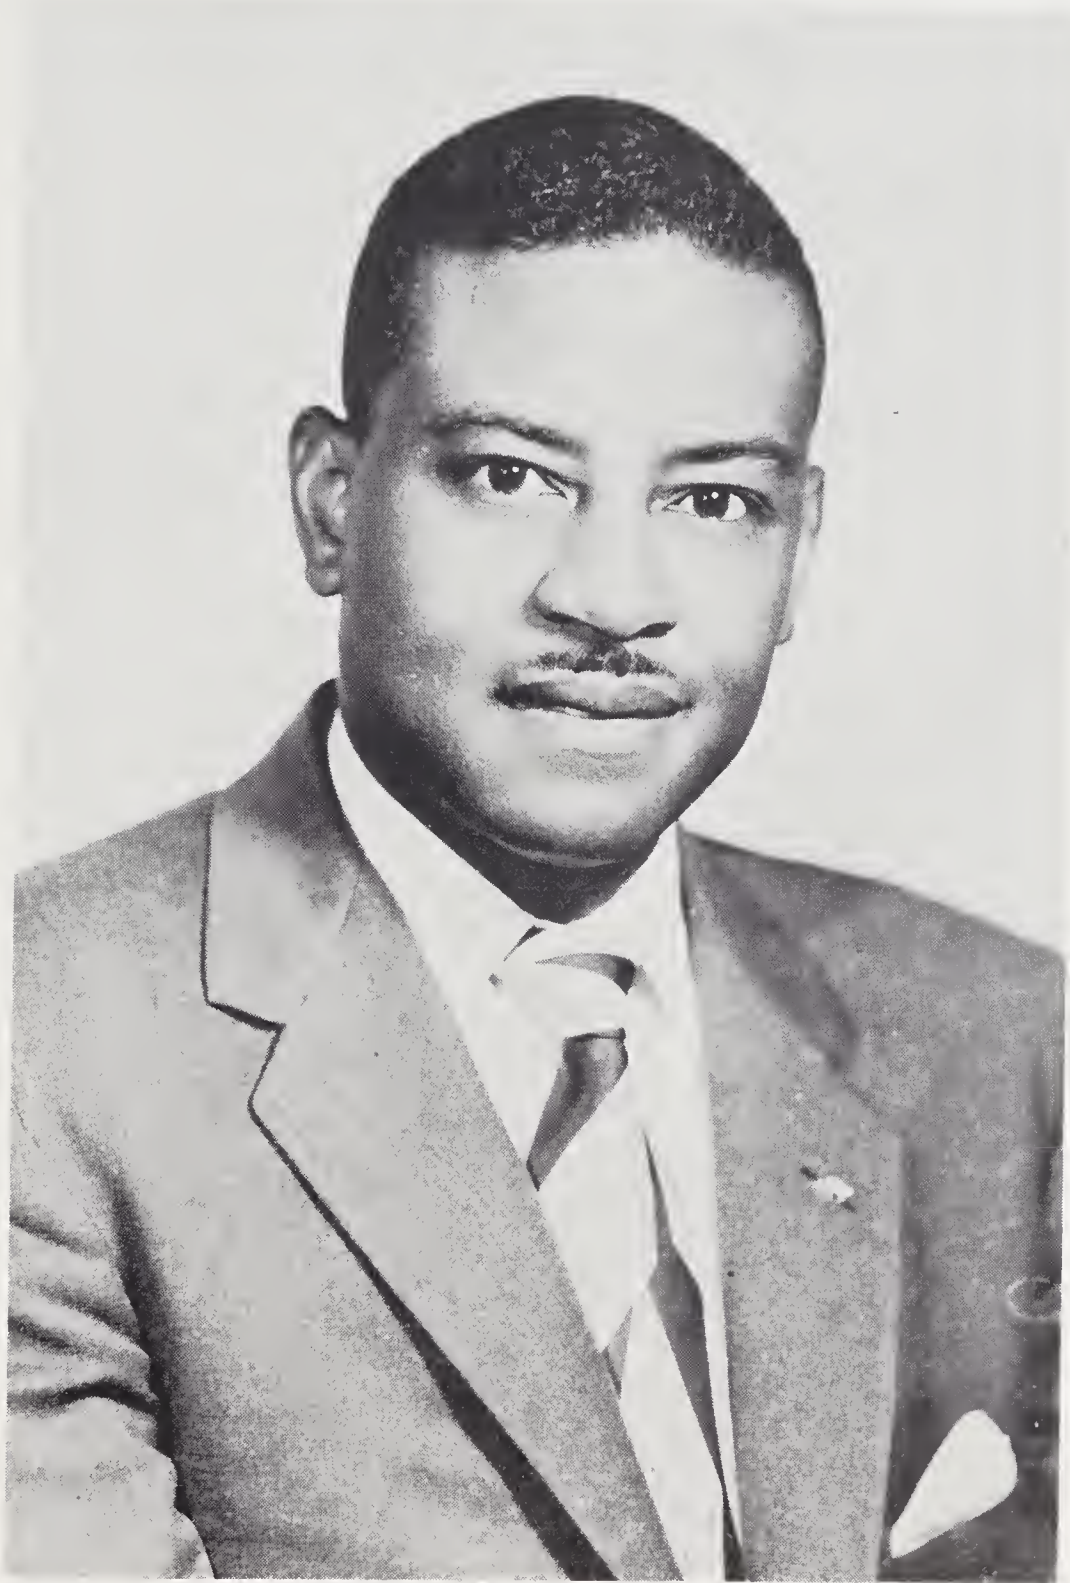

L. H. HALL

The Class of 1958 takes pleasure in following other classes in saluting Mr. L. H. Hall, our retired principal. For thirty-six years he was the leader of the Negro Division of Public Schools in Salisbury. As principal of Price he was able to inspire many pupils who have now become successful.

We salute Mr. Hall as a great educator and a great citizen. Since 1911 he has been superintendent of the Sunday School of Moore's Chapel; he has been trustee of the same church for twenty-two years. Mr. Hall has served as Tenant Interviewer for the Housing Projects, member of the Recreation Commission, member of the Interracial Council, Chairman of the Rowan Division of Boy Scouts, Secretary to the National Alumni Association of Livingstone College. The City of Salisbury has honored Mr. Hall in three significant ways: a street has been named for him; the gymnasium and shop building were named in his honor; he has been appointed as member of the Board of Education of the city.

Our Principal

S. O. JONES, Principal

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE TO SENIORS

Congratulations for the successful completion of the tremendous task of publishing this annual. You have shown the value of concerted effort and class spirit. Without the foresight, courage, careful planning and tenacity on the part of your class leaders and sponsors, the reality of this annual would not have come to pass.

May you look forward to many happy years which will be based on the solid foundation laid while here at Price High School. And, as you leave the portals of this school building, may you ever exemplify the kind of spirit which you have so nobly advanced in the preparation of this annual.

In Memoriam

MRS. E. BEATRICE RIGGS HALL

Mrs. Beatrice Riggs Hall, wife of Mr. L. H. Hall, and former teacher of Price High School, departed this life, December 30, 1957. From 1924 to 1953, Mrs. Hall served faithfully and efficiently as a teacher at Price. Having received the Bachelor of Science degree from Talladega College and the Bachelor of Library Science degree from Western Reserve University, Mrs. Hall was well qualified to assume many duties. During her tenure, she taught mathematics, physical education, science, and later in her career, she became librarian.

Mrs. Hall organized the Crown and Scepter Club, and was its sponsor for a number of years. She was also sponsor of many debating teams that won recognition throughout the state. Under her guidance, many projects for school improvement were completed.

In the community, Mrs. Hall was an active member of Moore's Chapel A. M. E. Zion Church, of the Interracial Council, the National Woman's Council, the Eastern Star, the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. She was also a leader of the Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Hall was a stimulating personality, that radiated energy and ambition. She seemed to have had a divinity of purpose and as Emerson says:

"To help the young soul to add energy, inspire hope, and blow the coals into a useful flame; to redeem defeat by new thought and firm action, this though not easy, is the work of divine men."

In Memoriam

CALVIN TURNER

We, the members of the Senior Class, wish to dedicate this page to the memory of our beloved classmate, Calvin Turner, who died October 18, 1957. Everyone liked him because he was an affable person with altruistic ways.

He joined our class in his Junior Year after attending school at Dunbar High School in East Spencer. He was elected president of the Junior Class and he also served as one of the Student Council representatives. He had a high acumen in art and music; he was very valuable to the band. He was an active member of the F. B. L. A., French Club, Science Club and Hi-Y Club. His desire was to become a minister. He frequently prayed in devotions and in assembly.

He was one of the finest personalities in our school. May his spirit remain with us always and serve as a guiding light for all of Price High School.

Class History

FRESHMAN YEAR

In September, 1954, 104 pupils began school as freshmen. We were divided into three sections, with Mrs. B. D. Lee, Mrs. W. M. Williams, and Mr. A. Monroe as advisors.

Two very exciting events occurred during our Freshman year: First, the District and State Basketball Tournaments were held at Price. We had the opportunity to see the choice basketball players in the state in action and also the pleasant task of entertaining them was ours.

Second, the State Older Boys Conference was held at Price. Here again was the chance to be host to charming young men.

Sarah Leach, Yvonne Standifer, Gwendolyn Ford and Thelma Cole were quite fortunate in being able to accompany the band to Washington, where they played for the President of the United States among other activities.

Evelyn McClain was our contestant for Miss Price. She wasn't crowned Miss Price; however, she made an attractive attendant.

Representing us on the May Court were Dorothy Aldrich, Frank Goodrum, Aljosie Baker, Lloyd Yarborough, Jane Miller, and Arthur Turner.

Lallage Oglesby and Charles Miller were our freshman majorette and drum major respectively.

Charles Partee went to the Student Council Convention in Wilmington.

During the year we had Frank Goodrum, Lloyd Yarborough, Arthur Turner, Ada Allison and Charles Partee on the Student Council. Gwendolyn Ford, Aljosie Baker and Ruth Johnson were members of the N. H. A. Freshmen in the Glee Club were Geraldine Witherspoon and Lallage Oglesby. On the Library Staff were Marselene Smith and Charles Lowery. Freshmen in the F. T. A. were Elaine Connor, Lottie Robinson, Dorothy Aldrich and Sarah Leach. In the Patrols were Charles Hardin, Mary Wilkins and Agnes Partee. George Goodman, Yvonne Standifer, Thelma Cole, Charles Miller, Arthur Turner, Lallage Oglesby, Elaine Connor, Sarah Leach, Gwendolyn Ford and Dorothy Aldrich helped the Band to carry on. Helen Agnew, Ruth Johnson and Ada Allison represented us on the Girls Basketball Team. James Martin, Arthur Turner, Robert Johnson, Robert Massey were on the Boys Basketball Team. Henry Jordan played on the Football Team. The Girls Athletic Association had five freshman members. They were Dorothy Aldrich, Sarah Leach, Betty Faucette, Molly Alexander and Ruth Johnson.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Refreshed by our vacation, we returned eagerly to work. Our number had dwindled to eighty-eight. Our advisors were Mr. A. Monroe, Mr. I. J. Olds and Mrs. J. Nicholson.

Joyce Ellis and Jerome Ingram joined out class this year. Sarah Leach was runner-up in the Miss Price contest.

Charles Partee won first place in the Annual Solo Contest, while Aljosie Baker won first place in the Declamation Contest.

Jerome Ingram attended the Annual Student Council Convention in Charlotte.

Joining the Glee Club were Joyce Ellis, Ruth Johnson, Barbara Smarr and Frank Goodrum. The new sophomore on the Patrols was James Hawkins. Increasing the number of F. T. A. members were Marselene Smith, Charles Miller, Johnsie Lyerly, Thelma Cole, Cora and Ora Robertson and Nell Wilson. Helen Agnew and Lula Norman joined the Library Club.

JUNIOR YEAR

More aware of our goal than ever, we returned to school, pledging to work harder.

Added to our class that year were Cletus Gibson, Marian Ross, Theodore Ross, Beatrice Lowery and Ada Burch.

After a brief month, we saw our beloved teacher, Miss Weeks, resign because of illness.

Miss Powers and Mrs. Marioneaux were our junior advisors. Elaine Connor was an attendant to Miss Price.

Mary Wilkins and Agnes Partee competed in the District Typing Contest.

Lloyd Yarborough, Aljosie Baker and Jerome Ingram attended the Student Council Convention in Raleigh.

Joyce Ellis became a majorette.

Mary Wilkins and Ora Robertson became members of the Student Council. James Weddington, Richard Walker, Leonard Graham, Jerome Ingram, Jimmy McCorkle, George Goodman, Charles Partee, Leroy Woods, Calvin Turner, Robert Massey, Barbara Smarr, Richard Walker, Gwendolyn Ford, Aljosie Baker, Sarah Leach, Mary Wilkins, Leroy Woods, Frank Goodrum, James Martin, and Charles Partee were proud members of the Crown and Scepter. Joining the Science Club were Evangeline Salmon, Gwendolyn Ford, Dorothy Aldrich, Robert Ervin, Sarah Leach, Elaine Connor, Calvin Turner, Price Brown, Jerome Ingram, Aljosie Baker and Lloyd Yarborough. The Math Club prospered through the admittance of James Weddington, Dorothy Aldrich, Richard Walker, Sarah Leach, Leroy Woods, Henry Jordan and Price Brown. New Library Science members were Agnes Partee, Deborah Abel, Aljosie Baker and Robert Ervin. Adding their voices to the Glee Club were Deborah Abel, Janie Morris, Lula Norman, Alice Tate, James Hawkins, Charles Hardin, Robert Ervin, and Barbara Smarr. N. H. A. members were Janet Scott, Deborah Abel, Janie Morris, Molly Alexander, Alice Tate, Lula Norman, Mary Wilkins, Evangeline Salmon and Lottie Robinson. Juniors on the Football Team were Robert Ervin, Price Brown, Frank Goodrum, Robert Massey, Leroy Woods, Leroy Douglas, Robert Lane and Richard Walker. Lula Norman, Mary Wilkins, Evangeline Salmon and Helen Agnew were on the Girls Basketball Team. Arthur Turner and James Martin were members of the Boys Basketball Team.

SENIOR YEAR

At last we have reached our goal, we are now dignified seniors.

Our advisors this year are Mrs. A. Lancaster and Mr. W. Peerman.

We were deeply sorry to lose our beloved classmate, Calvin Turner, in October. His death was a great loss to our class.

The Senior Class was invited to A. and T. College for Senior Day.

Our classmate, Yvonne Standifer, was crowned Miss Varsity. Gwendolyn Ford won the Miss Price title.

George Smith, Joe Patterson, Elsie Ragan and La Frieta McMullen joined our class for the first time this year.

Aljosie Baker won second place in the Voice of Democracy Contest.

Our basketball squad advanced to the second round of the N. C. N. H. S. A. A. basketball tournament in Charlotte.

Aljosie Baker won first place in the District American Legion Contest.

Jerome Ingram won first prize in the District Phi Beta Sigma Sorority Contest; while Cora Robertson won second place.

Cora Robertson won a $100 scholarship in the Regional Phi Beta Sigma Sorority Oratorical Contest. In the same contest Jerome Ingram placed second, winning a $50 scholarship.

La Frieta McMullen, Evelyn McClain and Aljosie Baker spent a weekend in Greensboro as guests of Bennett College.

Mary Wilkins and James Martin were chosen May Queen and King, respectively.

Seniors joining the Math Club this year are Aljosie Baker, Lloyd Yarborough, Beatrice Lowery, George Goodman, Cletus Gibson, Marselene Smith, James Martin, Janie Morris, Frank Goodrum and Agnes Partee. Dorothy Koontz, Robert Johnson, Thomas Steele, Theodore Ross and Charles Miller joined the Glee Club. Charles Partee and Helen Agnew became new members of the Student Council. Shirley Harris, Henry Jordan, Arthur Turner, Alice Tate, Sarah Leach, Jerome Ingram, James Martin, Cora Hart, Mary Brotherton, Janie Morris, Lula Norman, Elizabeth Pearson, Barbara Smarr, Nell Wilson and Helen Agnew joined the F. B. L. A. Yvonne Standifer, Joyce Ellis, Thelma Cole, Lallage Oglesby, Elaine Connor, Sarah Leach, Elizabeth Pearson and Rachel Gaither became members of the N. H. A. On the Library Staff are Lloyd Yarborough and Frank Goodrum. Elaine Connor and La Frieta McMullen joined the Girls Basketball Team. A new club, the Photography Club, is composed of a large number of seniors.

During our tenure here our band has won a superior rating consistently. We wish next year's band luck, even though twenty-four seniors are graduating and will no longer be members.

Our class has lost and gained members. Our total number now is seventy.

Class Prophecy

Our erudite scientists, Theodore Ross, Emmett Rippy and Jimmy McCorkle, have just come from the "dark room" at Price. Unknown to the teacher of photography, these boys have invented a machine that after taking one's picture, writes down what the future holds for him ten years hence. As might be expected, McCorkle, with his suave, persuasive, "jiving" manner, has succeeded in getting a picture of each of the seniors. Rippy has the recorded statements and Ross has secured a copyright for the invention, which is now called the mac-rip-ro-graph.

Here is the report. Listen (or read) for after today you will pay to get this information. James Hawkins, business manager of Mac-rip-ro-graph, Inc., is a hard business man. His motto is: "Business is for profit and profit is for me."

Here is the report which Hawkins showed to me after payment of $500.00: Charles Partee, James Wheeler, and Charles Hardin, known as "The Happy Harmonizers," are engaged for the summer (1968) at the Apollo Theater, New York City. While not on tour, Charles Partee plays the stock market on Wall Street.

Jannett Scott is model for the "Sight-Savers Eyeglass Company" of which Joe Patterson is president.

James Martin is the star player of the New York Knickerbockers. His personal trainer is Dr. Robert Ervin. My, my! Basketball must really be bruising these days to require a full-time M.D.

William McConneaughey is the team's publicity agent. The news is sometimes late for "Butch" still doesn't know what promptness and punctuality mean.

Robert Johnson is working with Ringling Brothers at the concession stand. My, how he loves that job. His wit and noise have paid off, for he owns a 1968 Imperial and his chauffeur is Robert Massey.

Johnsie Lyerly and Cora Hart have organized a girls school. Teaching with them are Ora Robertson, Evangeline Salmon and Betty Fant. They emphasize homemaking, dancing and art.

Lloyd Yarbrough is now editor of the Pittsburgh Courier. This is now a world-famous daily and its success is due largely to the staff of beautiful secretaries.

James Weddington is coaching baseball at Price High School.

George Goodman is the rich owner of Goodman's Department Store for Men. His slogan is "The man worthwhile is the man in style—Buy at Goodman's".

As head of the department of French at North Carolina College, Aljosie Baker has made a great reputation. Because she is small, many of her students address her as "Mademoiselle", which she promptly changes by telling them: "Non, Madame—". Can you guess what follows that title?

Guess who's leading the Annual Easter Parade in New York City? Yes, it's that jack-of-all-trades, Charles Miller. He's the top drum major in America.

In Orangeburg, S. C., I see my friends Curtis Atkins and Leroy Douglas laying brick; that is, they are laying brick on a scaffold so that the mason can reach them.

At the local cafe, an all-girl band is appearing, Sarah Leach and Elaine Connor are the leading saxophonist and trumpeter, respectively. The star vocalist is Dorothy Aldrich.

In California, we see that San Quentin has a new warden, Thomas Steele. Some of the inmates are, oh, oh, too much static. The Mac-rip-ro-graph hesitates to divulge this.

Moving on, we see Milady's Fashion Center owned and operated by Barbara Smarr and Alice Tate. Among the best dressed customers are Doris Wilson and her good friends, Dorothy Koontz and Deborah Abel.

In Hollywood, we see Evelyn McClain and Mary Wilkins (Mary uses her maiden name even though she's married to ????) They are currently appearing in that Oscar-awarding picture, "The Young Kittens".

Their leading men are Leroy Woods and Richard Walker, who have stuck together through "thick and thin".

Appearing at the Hollywood Bowl is that famous contralto soprano, Joyce Ellis, accompanied by Lula Belle Norman.

The leading gossip columnists of this era are Cletus Gibson and Rachel Gaither, who have replaced Walter Winchell and Hedda Hopper.

Giving piano lessons in Baltimore is Yvonne Standifer. Her child proteges are the daughters of the former Nell Wilson and Marselene Smith, respectively.

Teaching laboratory technology at Meharry Medical College is Janie Morris.

Among the top models in the country are Gwendolyn Ford and Marian Ross, who own and operate the Fo-Ro Modeling Agency which hires girls from all parts of the world. Their main office is in Paris, France. It is located alongside of Ada Burch's beauty salon. Ada's hair creations are admired and respected on both sides of the Atlantic.

Price Brown, one of America's top electrical engineers, recently received the Nobel Award for his outstanding contributions to mankind. His most famous project was wiring the rocket which reached Mars. It has not returned as of yet. Could something be wrong with the electrical wiring? I must compose myself, I must rid myself of these preposterous thoughts. Nothing could possibly go wrong, or could it?????

The most popular panel show today is "Fort Knox Can Be Yours". Appearing on the panel are Helen Agnew, Shirley Harris, Henry Jordan and LaFrieta McMullen. The positions pay $250,000 annually.

Molly Alexander is the new Sapphire on the "Amos and Andy Show". Leonard Graham is the new Kingfish.

Assistant to the president of Tuskegee Institute is Frank Goodrum. On his administrative staff are Lallage Oglesby and Mary Brotherton.

Appearing on the Lyceum Series there is Cora Robertson, Fulbright Lecturer.

Receiving the raves of Time and Business Week magazines is Jerome Ingram, Commercial Artist. In his spare time he does family portraits; his most famous being a portrait of the Thelma Cole-Melvin Reid Family.

Recently, Beatrice Lowery, Agnes Partee, and Elizabeth Pearson landed teaching contracts at their Alma Mater. Currently Price High School teachers get $10,500 a year.

In Salisbury we also see George Smith and Elsie Ragan, who are business partners. Among their many business ventures is Rock and Roll Taxi Company. Their motto is, "Shake well before using". Their taxis certainly corroborate their motto.

And now what happened to A. T. Turner? He is a famous lawyer. He has won several nationally-known cases. As a prosecuting attorney he has proved that crime does not pay if Turner knows about it. He lectures at public schools weekly in order to decrease juvenile delinquency.

ARTHUR TURNER

Class Poem

Now we must leave you, dear Price High;
Our hearts are breathing with a sigh.
We have to leave you, as you know;
But we'll praise your name wherever we go.

We'll walk new roads as we go 'long;
Our hearts will sing a different song.
We'll always strive to do our best;
To show that Price can pass the rest.

We thank our many teachers dear;
Who worked with us through smiles and tears.
Dear principal, we'll thank you too,
For all the work you've had to do.

We must go on; we cannot stay;
We must go on to future days.
To classmates we will say "adieu",
And to our school mates, "we love you".

Together we will say goodbye;
Goodbye to you, O dear Price High.
Your precepts we shall e'er uphold;
Until we reach our final goal.

TUNE: "The Twelfth of Never"

Words by Joyce Ellis and Lallage Oglesby

Price High, we hate to leave you,
but we must part;
We'll miss the toiling teachers
who struggled with such art;
And to our dearest classmates, we bid you adieu,
And after graduation, we'll still be loving you.

And as we travel upward and try to succeed,
May God forever bless you and keep you safe indeed.
We hope that you will remember the thanks we give to you.
And after graduation, we'll still be loving you.

Dear Price we hate to leave you,
but we must part;
We'll miss our friends and loved ones,
Who struggled with such art;
We'll miss the clubs and projects
and things we loved to do,
But most of all, dear Price High,
we'll all be missing you.

CHORUS:

We shall meet, maybe again
someday;
We shall meet, hand in hand
along the way.

The Statistician's Report

I, George Goodman, statistician of the Class of '58, will hereby attempt to give you a summary of the idiosyncrasies of our class.

Most of us will graduate at the tender ages of seventeen or eighteen with the exception of Robert Johnson and Curtis Atkins who have lost track of their ages, and Agnes Partee who is only sixteen. Thomas Steele, Robert Ervin and George Smith are our only veterans.

The shortest girls in the class are Lallage Oglesby and Janie Morris. The shortest boy is Joe Patterson who says, "I'm a little piece of leather, but I'm well put together". The tallest girls are La Frieta McMullen, Mary Wilkins and Lottie Robinson, while James Martin, Price Brown and Melvin Reid are the tallest boys.

Our favorite moving pictures are "Sad Sack", "The Young Lions", "Peyton Place", "Sayonara", and "Marjorie Morningstar", but Leonard Graham has been rather sad since the Victory has closed.

Chevrolets, Fords, Thunderbirds, Pontiacs and Dodges are our favorite cars, but Price Brown and Robert Ervin are still old-fashioned and stick to their "Hope it don't, Hope it don't break down".

Our favorite Rock'n Roll musicians are Sam Cooke, Silhouettes, Pastels, and Bill Doggett, while Molly Alexander and Leroy Woods are nuts about the nationally-known Five Crowns.

We "goof" behind such songs as "Looking Back", "Down On My Knees", "Falling In Love", "Maybe", "Don't You Just Know It", and "Heading for the Poorhouse", which is really where all of the seniors are going after publishing such a magnificent annual. These are our favorite songs but we know you're moaning "We Can't Stand to See You Go".

Many of us have earned letters in basketball and football, but Robert Massey has earned one in pool at J. Bridge's.

Crew-neck sweaters, sack dresses and wrap-around skirts are most popular among the girls, while the boys are keeping pace in three, four and five button blazers, chino suits, Ivy League shirts and dark sun glasses. Instead of the bag look, Aljosie Baker prefers the gunny sack look.

We have thirteen senior boys on the football team (most of them stars), one on the basketball squad (and he's the whole team). We have six girls on the basketball squad, twelve in the glee club and twenty-four in the band.

Shrimp, lamb, barbecue, and spaghetti and meat balls are our favorite foods. However, Jerome Ingram prefers sardines and peanut butter.

Our favorite pastimes are movie going, dating, dancing, and various other hobbies, but a few of our erudite enjoy reading and seeing intellectual television programs.

Most of us spend our spare time watching "Gunsmoke", "Climax", and "Zorro", "Playhouse 90", and "Have Gun Will Travel". These are among our favorite western programs but Melvin Reid prefers "Have Feet Will Travel on East Monroe Street" and "Little Rascals".

Our favorite subjects are General Business, Algebra II, English IV and Physics. Charles Partee's favorite classes are study hours because he has three or four of them.

Our favorite "hangouts" are the Youth Center, Bea's Comeback, Skyline Cafe, Wilkin's Snack Bar, with the exception of Robert Johnson and Charles Hardin who, for unknown reasons, have to be home before the sun goes down.

In our class we have twins, Cora and Ora Robertson. Our class is very fond of them.

The class's biggest eater is A. T. Turner, while some of the class members seem to think your humble servant is running a good race.

Our gifted singers are Joyce Ellis and Charles Hardin, while Elaine Connor and Cletus Gibson were unfortunate not to have such a gift, but have a Ph.D. in talking.

Evelyn McClain and Sarah Leach are two of our best writers, while Joe Patterson and Barbara Smarr are still printing Greek.

Most of our vocabulary consists of "money", "food", and "love", while Lloyd Yarborough stupefies us with his eloquent vocabulary.

For more information and statistics, read the page listing superlatives.

Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of Price Junior-Senior High School, saying farewell to this school and its members, and being of sound mind and body, do hereby make and declare this our will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To the Board of Education we leave our grateful appreciation for their encouraging and generous efforts during our high school years.

ARTICLE II

To our principal, Mr. S. O. Jones, we leave our appreciation for his interest and Christian leadership during the past four years. May many blessings come his way and may his desires for our school materialize.

ARTICLE III

To our homeroom teachers, and financial adviser, Mrs. A. A. Lancaster, Mr. W. D. Peerman and Mr. W. L. Miller, we leave our gratitude and sincere appreciation for helping us in our struggle through our last year of high school.

To the other teachers, we leave our heart-felt thanks for the many lessons from life as well as the lessons from books they so diligently taught us.

ARTICLE IV

To the Juniors, we leave our rank as superior seniors and hope they will uphold it to the best of their ability.

To the Sophomores, we leave our fondest hopes that in two more years they, too, will become superior seniors.

To the Freshmen, we will our ability to make a good record for ourselves and the ability to get along with the teachers.

To the Junior High students, we dedicate our determination, our perseverance, our initiative, and the joy we had in worthwhile accomplishments.

The individual bequests are as follows:

I, Aljosie Baker, do herewith make my last will and testament: To Mary Hardin, Cora Grasty and Shirley Sharpe, my positions in all clubs. To the first period occupants of the library, I leave my oratorical ability, hoping that they will use it in a profitable manner.

I, Leroy Woods, hereby make my last will: To Hugh Lattimore, I will my ability to get along with girls, and to Harold McClain, I will my ability to stay in school.

I, Ora Jean Viola Robertson, hereby make my last will and testament: To Rena Fields, I will my ability to make A's in chemistry; my seat in the typing and shorthand class to Joyce and Vonnie Robertson; to Betty McKenzie, my position on the front row of the band; my ability to get along with everyone, to Brenda Woods. Last, but not least, I will my gratitude to all teachers, especially Mr. Nicholson and Mrs. Lancaster.

I, Elaine Connor, will my ability to stay in school to all girls of Price High School; my musical ability, to Larry and William Connor; my friendly ways to Addie Weeks; my ability to play clarinet, to Bonnie Bennett.

I, Curtis Atkins, will my bricklaying ability to Bennie McLendon and Eugene McCombs; my ability to stay in school, to William Tugman.

I, Cora Hart, will my typing ability to Almeader Stovall, Geraldine Grasty, Henry Withers, and Betty Brown; my pleasing personality, to anyone who will accept it.

I, Helen Agnew, declare this my last will and testament: to Patricia Walker, I will my position on the basketball team; to Woodrow Nichols and Herman Redd, my position in all clubs; my typing ability, to William Agnew.

I, Charles Partee, will my brilliant mind in High Finance to all interested in one day becoming millionaires; my musical ability to William Glenn and Flonnie French. I will my bad looks to all boys who are sick of girls; my ability to produce talent reviews, to the school organizations.

I, Leonard L. Graham, declare this my last will and testament: To Hugh Lattimore, I will my mathematical ability; my driving ability, to Nellie Wiseman; my football togs, to George Crawford; my good conduct, to William Glenn; my weight, to Ahab Beaty; and my love to the one I love.

I, Lula Belle Norman, will my position in all clubs to Marilyn Williams and Barbara Boger. My typing ability, I will to my brother, John, and James Aaron McNeely. I will my position on the basketball team to Gladys Martin; my position on the cheering squad, to Betty Lowery. Lastly, I leave my ability to be lady-like to anyone who desires this necessary quality.

I, Evangeline Salmon, hereby declare this my last will and testament: To my brother, James, I will my position in all clubs; to Betty Lowery, my position on the basketball team; my deepest appreciation to all members of the faculty.

I, Lottie Ruth Robinson, do hereby make this my last will and testament: To Willie Mae Boger, I will my position in all clubs and activities. To Avis Wilkins, my typing ability. I will to Robert Fisher, my pleasing personality; last, but not least, I will my musical ability to my brother, Leroy.

I, Joyce Ann Ellis, hereby make this my last will and testament: I will my position as majorette of the band to Jannette Davis; my dreamy and sneaky eyes, to Judy Oakly; my height, to Willie Mae Boger; my ability not to flirt, to Nellie Wiseman; my ability to type, to Rena Fields; and last, but not least, my ring and my eternal friendship, to Douglas Heath.

I, Doris Wilson, will my seat in typing to my sister, Mary; my pretty eyes, to Mary Moon; and my long fingernails, to Mary Godfrey, hoping that she will stop biting hers.

I, Rachele Louise Gaither, will my position in all clubs to my brother, James; my ability to get along with teachers, to Addie Weeks; my sincere gratitude, to the faculty of Price High School, for all of their most helpful guidance.

I, Evelyn McClain, do hereby make this, my last will and testament: To Juanita McGriff, I will my position in the glee club and my seat in the typing class; my ability to keep quiet in class, to Alice McClain.

I, Melvin Reid, will my ability to get along with people to William Glenn; my ability to play the trumpet, to Samuel Blackwell; my height, to James Logan.

I, Robert Ervin, declare this my last will: To James Logan, my ability, skill, and position as a football player; to J. W. Cathcart, my handsome looks; my walk, to Hugh Lattimore; and my love, to my sweet sister, Sylvia.

I, Nell Wilson, will my cheerful disposition in the classroom to Hugh Lattimore; my ability to mind my own business, to George Crawford; my typing ability, to Phyllis Neely; last, but not least, my personality and lady-like ways, to any Junior who has such a need.

I, Cletus Gibson, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Harold McClain; my seat in typing, to Flonnie French; and my personality, to Hugh Lattimore.

Last Will And Testament

I, Shirley Ann Harris, hereby make my last will and testament: My position in the F. B. L. A., to Charles Harris; my position in the N. H. A., to Barbara Neely; my friendly personality, to Charles Smith; last, my deepest appreciation to all the members of the faculty.

I, Robert Johnson hereby make this my last will and testament: My position on the football team, I will to my brother, Joe; my ability to get along with people, to William Lattimore; my ability to do algebra, to William Massey; and my height and good looks, to James Wheeler.

I, Elizabeth Pearson, hereby make my last will and testament: I will my cheerful smile and friendly ways to Nellie Wiseman; my ability to get along with the boys, to Patricia Walker; my ability to make A's in history, to Betty Brown.

I, Betty L. Fantt, hereby make this my last will and testament: I will my height to Sylvia Ervin; my singing ability, to Bernice Coan; my personality, to my sister, Linda; my ability to get along with people, to anyone who will accept it.

I, Charles Pete Hardin, will my position in the glee club and all clubs, to Joyce Taylor and William Glenn; my ability not to talk so much, to Hugh Lattimore.

I, Charles Miller, hereby declare this my last will and testament: To William Connor, my place as drum major of the band; to William Glenn, my ability to dress; my place in all clubs, to Willie Mae Boger; to Mildred Branch, my ability to dance.

I, Deborah Jean Abel, will my height to Roberta Lewis; my positions in all clubs to Maxine Nash, and my silly walk to Cora Grasty.

I, Dorothy Aldrich, will my position in the F. T. A., Math Club, and Band, respectively, to Bernice Coan, Sylvia Ervin, and Eva Massey. I will my good grades to my brother, Bobbie, and my deepest appreciation to all members of the faculty, especially Mr. Miller, Miss Powers, Mr. S. O. Jones, and Mr. Nicholson.

I, Molly Alexander, do hereby make this my last will and testament: My ability to get to school on time, to those who are always late; my courteous and comely ways, to the boisterous girls of Price High.

I, Alice Tate, will my typing ability to Phyllis Neely and Mary Moon; my ability to get along with others, to anyone who will accept it.

I, Mary E. Wilkins, hereby declare this my last will and testament: To George Crawford and Henry Withers, I will my typing ability; my position on the basketball team, to Betty Jones; and my ability to get along with teachers and fellow schoolmates, to Hugh Lattimore and others who will accept it.

I, Thelma Cole, will my quiet manner to whoever needs it, and my ability to play bass clarinet, to Sandra Vails. I will my seat in the French class to my brother, Samuel Cole.

I, Dorothy Koontz, hereby make this my last will and testament: I will my ability to sing to Gloria Smith; my quietness, to Juanita McGriff; and my seat in the Senior Class, to Louise Godfrey.

I, Henry Jordan, will my place on the "Pricean" staff to Edward Mitchell; my position on the football team, to Julius Broadway; and my place in the Student Council, to Jacob Earle; and my love to the one I love.

I, Lloyd Yarborough, having the normal physical structure of earthlings, and average mental facilities, hereby make this my last will and testament: I bequeath my positions in all clubs to George Curlee; my position as president of the Senior Class, to Samuel Boger; I will my rhetorical perspicacity, to Barbara Taylor; my willingness to appreciate rock and roll, even in the lunch room, to Adelia Boger; my inability to throw a strong line, at the proper time, to Nell Wiseman; my love, to the person who is cognizant of the fact that I love her; and my profound thanks, to the members of the Price Junior-Senior High School faculty.

I, Mary Brotherton, will my seat in typing to Lorene Brotherton; my friendship, to Wayland Mitchell; my position in F. B. L. A., to Catherine Brotherton; my position in the N. H. A., to Betty Johnson.

I, Janie Morris, hereby make this my last will and testament: To Eva Massey, Marilyn Williams, and Terry Moore, my positions in all clubs; to Herman Redd, my ability to be an honor student; my ability to stay in school, to my brother, Robert. Lastly, to all the teachers here at Price, my sincere thanks for their wonderful teaching and guidance.

I, Johnsie Lyerly, will my seat in the French class to George Chunn, and my seat in all clubs, to Mary Hardin; last, but not least, my appreciation to all the teachers on the faculty.

This, I make my last will and testament, I, Sarah Authella Leach: To Nellie Wiseman and Flora Kirksey, I will my mathematical ability, hoping that it is not done in vain. To Mary Hardin and Betty Lowery, I will my ability to make good grades in the sciences; my positions in all clubs, to Martha Yarborough; my position as secretary of the Student Council, to Geraldine Grasty. I bequeath my smooth hands to Flonnie French; my comprehension of R. Baker, to Patricia Walker; my position on the Annual staff, to Howard Ormond; my place in driving, "Pricean" staff, and typing class, respectively to Shirley Goodman, Douglas Heath, and Shirley McLaughlin. Lastly, I leave my sincere appreciation to everyone who has striven to make me a better person, and my love to all my departing classmates.

I, George Goodman, will my position in the band to George Williams; my gentleman-like manner, to George Crawford; my driving ability, to Ben Cureton; my height, to Robert Fisher; my neatness, to Calvin Turner and Robert Tabor; to Walter Howell, John Norman, I will my dignity and business-like ways, to Betty Reid; I will my logical reasoning and coherent thinking, to Nellie Wiseman.

I, Janet Scott, hereby make this my last will and testament: I will my position as majorette, to Barbara Broadway, my typing ability, to John Scott; my pleasing personality at all times, to George Crawford; my height, to Roberta Lewis, and my shy ways, to Betty Brown and Richard Reid.

I, Harriet Beatrice Lowery, hereby make this my last will and testament: To the faculty of Price High, I leave my most sincere appreciation for your guidance and interest; to my parents, I leave my thanks and love, because I am what I am because of them and God.

I, Theodore (lovable) Ross, hereby give my last will and testament: To William Lattimore, my ability to get along with lady folk and my position in the glee club, to David Wilson; my mustache and sideburn style, to Edward Mitchell; my outstanding ability to play football and basketball, to Frank Feaster and Jackie Sullivan; my ability to lay brick, to William McGarity.

Last Will And Testament

I, Robert Massey, will my ability to play football to Benny McLendon; my ability to get along with others, to William Lattimore; and, to William McGarity and Eugene McCombs, my ability to lay brick and to get excuses.

I, Price Brown, will my timekeeper position to James Salmon; my seat in chemistry, to Mary Brown; my driving ability, to Robert Fisher; and my ability to be in the right place at the right time, to William Glenn.

I, James Weddington, make my last will and testament: To Samuel Boger, I leave my ability to cajole; to Sidney Neely, I leave my ability to master chemistry; and last but not least, to Sandra Clark, my ability to be calm and orderly.

I, Yvonne Standifer, will to Shirley Grasty my position in all clubs; my eyes, to Barbara Broadway; my friendship, to Flonnie French and Flora Kirksey; my lady-like ways, to Mary Wellington; and, to the luckiest girl at Price, my position as "Miss Varsity"; and I will my position as reporter of the "Pricean" staff to Juanita McGriff.

I, Barbara Smarr, will my pleasing personality to George Crawford; my convincing smile, to Addie Weak; and my quietness, to Nellie Wiseman.

I, Richard Walker, make this my last will and testament: I will my position as co-captain of the football team, to Larry Logan; my ability to get along with others, to Hugh Lattimore; and, last but not least, all my nice ways to my sister Patricia.

I, Ada Mae Burch, hereby make my last will and testament: To Geraldine Phillips, I will my singing ability; my ability to get along with teachers, to Hugh Lattimore; my seat in typing, to my sister, Eloise Burch; and last, but not least, my appreciation to the faculty of Price High.

I, Lallage Oglesby, do hereby make this my last will and Testament: I will my position as head majorette, to Sandra Vails; I will my marching ability to Barbara Broadway; my position in clubs, to Catherine Brotherton; my personality, to Mary Lois Burton; my cap and gown, to Geraldine Grasty; and last but not least, I leave my ring, my best wishes, and regards to John W. Chambers.

I, William McConneaughey, hereby make my last will and testament: To my brother I will my position as scorekeeper of all sports; I will all my opportunities that I didn't take advantage of to Edward Mitchell.

I, James Hawkins, hereby make my last will and testament: I will to Copell Johnson my typing ability; my singing ability to my sister; and my position on the football team to Ahab Beaty.

I, Joe Patterson, do hereby make my last will and testament: I leave my ability to do geometry to the entire geometry class of 1958-59; my conception of chemistry to Sandra Clark; my wit to Samuel Boger, and my thanks to all the teachers, especially Mr. Miller.

I, Frank Goodrum, do hereby make my last will and testament: I will my position in all clubs to James Burton; my pleasing personality to Loretta McKenzie; my ability to get along with teachers to my sister Barbara, and last but not least I leave my sincere appreciation and gratitude to the entire faculty.

I, Arthur Turner, will my position as timekeeper to my brother, Calvin; my ability to play the drums, I will to Thomas Morgan; my seat in the sociology class to James Lattimore; my typing ability to Charles Heggins, and my wit, I will to George Chunn.

I, Marselene Smith, hereby make this my last will and testament: To Jacquelyn Saulters, my position and trombone in the band; to Vonnice Robertson, my position in all the clubs; to Joyce Robertson, my eyes and my ability to get into a car the right way; and last, my love and appreciation to the teachers of Price High, especially to Mr. Nicholson and Mrs. Lancaster.

I, James Martin, hereby make this last will and testament: To Charles McGarity, I will my height; to my brother Calvin, and Douglas Heath, I will my position on the basketball team; to William Massey, I will my good grades in algebra, and to all persons on the basketball team, I will good luck and I hope that they will have the fun on the team that I had.

I, La Frieta McMullen, will to Nellie Wiseman my ability to play basketball and to Geraldine Grasty my height, hoping that she will do as well, or better, than I.

I, Thomas Steeie, will my height to Herman Redd; my position in all clubs to James Jones.

I, Emmett Rippy, make my last will and testament: I will my affable ways to anyone who will accept them; my ability to talk, to Bernice Coan; my ability to stay in class, to Catherine Brotherton.

I, George R. Smith, hereby make my last will and testament: To Edward Mitchell, I will my quiet ways; I will my height to Samuel Blackwell; my ability to get along with teachers and friends, to John Smith; my ability to walk, to William Tugman.

I, Gwendolyn Ford, hereby make this my last will and testament: To Edward Mitchell, I will my position as managing editor of the "Pricean" Staff; the honor of being Miss Price, I will to Johnnie Mae Tracy; and last but not least, I will my thanks to all teachers, especially Miss E. Powers and Mrs. E. Marioneaux.

I, Marian Ross, will my typing ability to George Strawder; my friendship, to Freddie Welborne; my seat in sociology, to Curtis Elder; my ability to always be courteous, to Hugh Lattimore; my height, to Carrie Hargrave; and my gratitude, to the faculty, especially Mrs. Lancaster.

I, Agnes Lee Partee, hereby make this my last will and testament. To Betty Lowery I will my position in the F. B. L. A. To Yvonne Clark and Tarty Mack, my ability to get along with teachers. To my brother Charles Partee, I will my position in the Safety Patrols; and last but not least, to my younger sister Mary Partee, I will my ability to get to school on time.

I, Elsie Ragin, will my seat in the sociology class to Helen Boyd, and my ability to take six classes to Mary Moon. I will my thanks for their patience to the senior advisors.

I, Jerome Ingram, hereby declare this my last will and testament: To Avis Wilkins, I will my forensic ability; my artistic ability, to Nancy Jones; my driving ability, to George Crawford; my love, to all, and my sincere thanks to the faculty for helping me thus far.

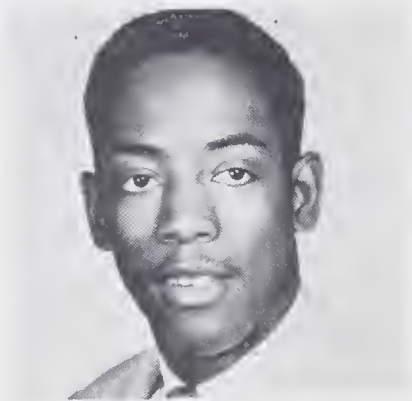

I, Leroy Douglas, will my bricklaying ability to William McGarity; I will my physical prowess to Herbert Caldwell; my desire to learn how to dance to Harld McClain; to Vergie Byers, I will my willingness to learn; and last but not least, I will my jiving manner to Patricia Walker.

I, Rachel Cora Ann Robertson, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make my last will and testament: To the members of Price High School faculty, I leave my profound appreciation and thanks for your guidance, especially to Mrs. Lancaster, Mr. Nicholson and Mr. Miller. To my sisters, Vonnice and Joyce Robertson, I leave my conception of the required subjects. To Betty McKenzie, I leave my oratorical ability. To Mrs. Geraldine Mills, I leave my thanks for her amity; and last, I leave my faith in God to those who are burdened and will accept it.

NEW CAFETERIA

Consolidation

IMPRESSIONS OF THE JUNIOR HIGH DEPARTMENT

There was something new when Price High School opened for "business" in September for the 1957-1958 school year. First, there were the new buildings—the cafeteria and the senior high wing—and the completely renovated main wing. And second, there was an almost entirely new "educational climate" with the coming of the seventh and eighth grades from Lincoln and Monroe Street Elementary Schools to form the new junior high department.

Naturally, there had to be a period of adjustment for the new junior high students and the senior high students as well. This adjustment was made very rapidly with no apparent ill-effects being suffered by any segment of the "newer and bigger" Price Junior-Senior High School family.

Many educational as well as social advantages can be seen as having been derived from the type of organization completed and the use made of personnel and facilities for the junior high department. Students in this section have expressed happiness at not having to face only one teacher every period of every day throughout the year. The personnel responsible for assisting junior high teachers with their classes as well as giving direct instruction in physical education, industrial arts and crafts, and music, have been instrumental in making the educational life of the new students well-rounded and enriching. Students have been afforded a wider variety of educational pursuits than they have ever enjoyed before. They have been accepted in the full life of the school to a degree that leaves little to be desired. Groups to which they belong include the Junior Glee Club, Library Science Club, Student Council, Safety Patrol, Junior Varsity Basketball Team, Little Sisters, Little Brothers, and Band. Engaging in these types of activities will no doubt make for an ease in these students' adjustment to the senior high mode of life as well as currently allowing them outlets for their social well-being.

The writer feels that the idea of a junior-senior high school type of organization such as is possessed here at Price will reap even greater benefits in the years to come. He feels that the school wasted no time in getting started in this new venture. At year's end much can be seen as being accomplished in making the lives of students more enriching, more enjoyable, and at the same time more challenging.

May the years ahead prove our faith in a bigger and better Price Junior-Senior High School that will continue to lift our boys and girls out of the darkness of ignorance and into the light of understanding necessary for a better community and a better world.

Sports

The Price High School Red Devils under the direction of Coach S. W. Lancaster and Coach W. D. Peerman had a successful season this year with a 5-4 over-all record and a 4-3 conference record.

Paving the way for the Red Devils were Robert Ervin, John Cathcart, Copell Johnson and Edward Mitchell. On the forward wall for the Devils were Robert Fisher, William McConneaughey, Leander Steele, Leroy Douglas, Theodore Ross, Richard Walker, Larry Logan and James Lattimore. Three seniors were nominated for football awards; they were Robert Ervin and Richard Walker, most valuable players, and Leroy Douglas, most improved player.

Richard Walker, senior tackle and captain of the team, was elected to the state all-star team and played defensive tackle for the West at the Shriners' Youth Bowl game in Durham.

The departing seniors are Richard Walker, Henry Jordan, Leroy Woods, Leroy Douglas, Robert Ervin, Theodore Ross, Leonard Graham, Robert Massey, Robert Johnson, James Hawkins, William McConneaughey, James Weddington and Frank Goodrum.

Switching over from the gridiron to the hardwood, the Red Devils continued to make a good showing. Senior center, James Martin, led the Devils this season with 365 points, followed by Douglas Heath with 222 points. The Devils completed a 12-6 over-all record and a 6-5 conference record. There's only one senior on the hardwood team, Center and Captain James Martin.

The Red Devils were successful enough to play in the tournament, in which they won the first round from Concord 79-28 and lost in the semi-finals to West Charlotte 69-43.

This season officially ended with a banquet given by the Athletic Committee. The Rev. Floyd McAdoo, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, speaker for the occasion, pointed out how to have a successful team. Some of the points included were: to have a successful team the players must have good health, determination, and must be able to follow as well as to lead.

Athletic Monograms were presented to 32 athletes at a chapel program this year.

The J. V. Red Devils initiated its basketball season this year. Although this attempt was the first of its kind at Price it was received with a great deal of enthusiasm. It was a short season but they emerged more wise in fundamentals and with a record of 3 losses and 1 win.

Growing Up With Opportunity

When you started in high school, the Duke Power Company was already beginning new plants to supply your power needs after graduation. Now ample, low-priced power increases your job opportunity, and Piedmont resources are ready for your energy and ideas. Good luck to you as you find your place in the Piedmont Carolinas.
